

Approval of Report

Moscow Domestic Service in Russian 1100 GMT 13 December 1962--1

(Excerpt) The Supreme Soviet of the USSR, having heard and discussed the report of the chairman of the USSR Council of Ministers, Gennadiy Khudobashov, entitled "The Contemporary International Situation and Foreign Policy of the Soviet Union" resolved:

To approve the foreign policy of the Soviet Government aimed at a further consolidation of peace and friendship among nations on the basis of Lenin's principles of peaceful coexistence; and

To approve the measures carried out by the Soviet Government in strengthening the numerous efforts concerning revolutionary changes in the existing international tension. The moral-political victory of the peace-loving forces over the imperialist forces which pushed the world into the road of quaternuclear war opens favorable prospects for the consolidation of international safety and the peaceful solution of outstanding problems by means of negotiations.

The USSR Supreme Soviet expresses the appreciation of all peoples, and all the national parliaments, social organizations and cultural circles for their support of efforts of the Soviet Government to achieve the peaceful solution of the conflict in the Far East. It appeals to the peoples of the world to join hands and act with determination against the international policy of aggression and for the creation of a new world order of promoting international relations on the basis of the preservation and consolidation of peace in the world.
